TIPS TO BE 100% ORGANIZED AND APPROVED

First, if you're going to have a leg to stand on in negotiations, you need to have your ducks in a row.

IF YOU ARE A HOME SELLER, YOU SHOULD:

- ✓ Set the right home price
- ✓ Have your home ready to show
- ✓ Know your responsibilities
- ✓ Have terms in mind

KEY IDEAS

- Set your list price based on current comps provided by your REALTOR®
- Use open houses to foster competition, virtual or in-person depending on current conditions
- Use counteroffers with expiration dates
- Talk to your REALTOR® about different options for counteroffers and concessions

THE QUESTIONS TO ASK AND PARTICIPATING LENDERS

Investigative work is the second step in a negotiation that lands you on top. Here are the right questions to ask if you are the home seller.

SELLER

- Who are you negotiating with: what is their financial position?
- What strategic concessions are you willing to make?
- What comps (other homes for sale) are you up against in your area?
- What do you have to negotiate with?
- What are your non-negotiables?

3 POSSIBLE GOALS

1. Create a bidding war

2. Drive urgency

3. Make more money

WHAT'S UP FOR NEGOTIATION?

As you enter this stage of a home sale or purchase, it's important to know that it's not just the price of the home that's up for negotiation. In fact, home negotiations can include a huge range of items that have personal or case-specific value.

Price

CONTINGENCIES

TERMS

OCCUPANCY

FURNITURE

REPAIRS

EQUIPMENT OR TOOLS

CLOSING COSTS

FEES

Sometimes, negotiations will occur after an inspection. If essential repairs are identified, these can be included in a negotiation about home price or closing costs.

NEGOTIATION TIPS

Negotiations will happen through your REALTOR®, who plays a vital role. Home sellers and buyers have a lot of opportunities to drive the conversation that occurs between real estate professionals. Here are some negotiation tips:

THE BASICS

- Know how to receive an offer and what your options are
- Set a bottom line price you'll accept
- Remember that price is not everything
- Set intentions and goals for your negotiations
- Understand contingency clauses and offers

The goal for everyone is a win-win deal.

Most important tip: collaborate with a qualified agent who will guide you through this process
